

Debate topics

Public Policy

1. "Governments should implement universal basic income to address economic inequality."
2. "Immigration laws should be relaxed to allow for free movement of people across borders."
3. "The voting age should be lowered to 16 to increase political engagement among youth."
4. "Public healthcare should completely replace private health insurance systems."
5. "Governments should impose strict internet censorship to combat misinformation."

Statistics

1. "Census data should be collected annually to ensure up-to-date information for policy making."
2. "The government should have unrestricted access to personal data for statistical purposes."
3. "Statistical models used for policy making should be made open source and transparent to the public."
4. "Bias in government-collected data can never be fully eliminated and therefore, should not be trusted."
5. "Ethical considerations should limit the extent of data collection by governments."

Finance

1. "The government should nationalize major industries to ensure economic stability."
2. "All forms of cryptocurrency should be banned to prevent financial crimes."
3. "The wealth tax is an effective tool for reducing income inequality."
4. "Government bailouts of failing companies are necessary to prevent economic collapse."
5. "Student loan debt should be completely forgiven by the government."
6. "The stock market is fundamentally flawed and should be heavily regulated or replaced."

Business

1. "Government should impose strict regulations on tech giants to prevent monopolistic practices."
2. "Corporate political donations should be banned to prevent undue influence on policy making."
3. "Businesses should be legally required to adopt sustainable practices to combat climate change."
4. "Worker co-operatives are the future of business and should be promoted by government policies."
5. "The gig economy undermines workers' rights and should be heavily regulated."